History 430: Queer History South
OFFERED IN FALL 2019!
OPEN TO ALL UNDERGRADUATE STUDENTS.

MISSION: To recover the history of the queer student movement at UA and across the state.

WHY TAKE THIS CLASS?

- Be part of the FIRST class of its kind in the department and C.A.S
- Explore how queer students campaigned for equality
- Partner with Invisible Histories, a national effort to catalogue queer history across the South

STRUCTURE OF THE CLASS:

- Learn how to take oral histories
- Conduct interviews with early leaders of the queer movement at UA
- Write about the lives and experiences of these leaders
- Build a digital humanities website to host student research

FOR MORE INFORMATION:
WWW.HISTORY.UA.EDU
DR. JOHN GIGGIE: JMGIGGIE@UA.EDU